

HIROSHIMA UNIVERSITY

FOR THOSE WHO WISH TO STUDY AT GRADUATE SCHOOLS

HU-IAO is...

The International Admissions Office (HU-IAO) is the helpdesk for applicants who graduated from universities outside of Japan and wish to study at Hiroshima University as regular graduate students or research students. HU-IAO assists applicants in initiating contact with the prospective supervisor through the International Admissions Assistant System, IAAS.

One graduate school does not require IAAS registration, so please check the admission guide first.*

Application Process

<By 6 months before the application period>

- Gather information on the graduate school of your interest [Reference] HU Graduate Schools List
- *Check the application period in the admission guide, etc. [Reference] Researcher Directory
- Search for information on your preferred supervisors and decide the graduate school

<By 2 months before the application deadline>

- (1) Register with IAAS (<https://www.iao.hiroshima-u.ac.jp/>)
- (2) Fill in the required information and necessary documents on IAAS (See "Required Documents" below.)

<After the submission>

- (3) IAO notify you whether or not you can contact the faculty member of your choice. ※1-4 weeks later
- (4) If "contactable," initiate contact with the faculty. If not, revise the application and resubmit.

<After completion of the contact with the faculty>

- (5) IAO inform you of the result of the pre-approval of acceptance by the faculty.

If approved, IAO will issue an "Approval Number"

<After receipt of the result from the IAO>

- (6) Apply based on the application guidelines of your preferred graduate school (online application) <https://www.webshutsugan.com/hiroshima-u-en/portal/top/>
(If you do not need to register with the IAAS and communicate directly with the support office or supervisor, you do not need to enter the "Approval Number".)
